

THE 2009-2010 SYMPHONY SEASON

A Season of Favorites

NIGHT OF ADVENTURE

October 1, 2009

Symphony fans of all ages are sure to enjoy a Night of Adventure with Superman, James Bond, Indiana Jones, Captain Hook, Batman, Princess Leia and more! Narrator to be announced.

AUTUMN ROMANCE

November 5, 2009

Spring isn't the only time when love is in the air! Let the Symphony Romance you with an evening of Ravel (Bolero), Respighi (Ancient Airs and Dances) and Rachmanoff (Piano Concerto No. 3) with featured soloist Gleb Ivanoff, piano.

HOLIDAY POPS

December 10, 2009

Nothing will get you in the Holiday spirit like this Bowling Green family tradition with featured soloists Melissa Gensler & Katie Rogers, Flute.

PATRIOTIC OVERTURE

February 18, 2010

Just in time for President's Day, come enjoy an evening of music with an air of patriotism. You'll hear Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture, Dvorak's Symphony No. 8 and Vivaldi's Oboe Concerto with featured soloist Michele Fiala, oboe.

CHORAL EXTRAVAGANZA

April 22, 2010

The Symphony presents Brahms' Requiem with the Bowling Green-Western Choral Society.

*All concerts take place at First Baptist Church, Bowling Green at 7:30 pm unless otherwise noted.